

Purple Top White Globe Turnips in a Deer Food Plot

[print_link]

These turnips were planted in mid July and this is how they look about the 20th of November. The deer have not yet started to eat them, although this is the first time we have planted these and they are a new food to the deer.