

Imperial Whitetail Double Cross Clover/Brassica Mix

[print_link]

This plot was planted in mid July. This is what it looked like about the 20th of November in western NY State. Notice that the deer have eaten the clover to the ground in and around the purple top turnips and rape plants.