

Early Spring Food Plot Feeding

[print_link]

In early spring the deer are still actively feeding on the remnants of Purple Top White Globe turnips planted in late summer of the previous year. They are essentially scooping out the bottom of the bowl. At the same time the clover is beginning to re-grow.