

Glyphosate Application a Month Prior to Tillage and Seeding

[print_link]

Deer Food Plot sprayed with Glyphosate in early June on untilled soil. This soil was disced in early July and planted with primarily rape, with a little radish and purple top turnip seed included. This seed bed was far superior to the seedbeds where glyphosate was only applied a week prior to tillage.